Promises2Kids to host an unforgettable benefit gala featuring multiple Grammy nominee artist Jewel

Promises2Kids, formerly the Child Abuse Prevention Foundation, will host its first fundraising event of the year, Jewel – A Private Concert to Benefit Promises2Kids, on Monday, July 20, at 6 p.m., at the estate of Joan Waitt, honorary chair, in La Jolla. Proceeds from the outdoor event will fund programs at Promises2Kids, a San Diego nonprofit committed to mending the broken promises made to child abuse victims, one child at a time.

Promises2Kids has funded child abuse prevention, education and advocacy programs for more than 27 years. Its primary goals are to break the cycle of child abuse and neglect, and provide San Diego County's foster children (approximately 7,000) with the tools, opportunities and guidance they need to address the circumstances which brought them into foster care, overcome those circumstances, and grow into healthy, happy and successful adults.

Performing as the benefit gala's feature is singer, songwriter, poet and three-time Grammy nominee, Jewel Kilcher, who is also a former San Diego resident. The exclusive concert will be held under a tent of stars in the backyard garden of Joan Waitt's estate, which has been graciously donated for the event. The event will also include a delicious dinner catered by the Hyatt Regency La Jolla and live auction where guests can bid on exclusive packages, including artist memorabilia, international vacation packages, dining experiences at San Diego's finest restaurants, and many more one-of-a-kind items.

The VIP reception with hors d'oeuvres catered by Truluck's begins at 6 p.m. Dinner and cocktails will begin at 6:30 p.m. followed by a live auction and the performance by artist Jewel beginning at 8:30 p.m. Complimentary valet service will be provided.

Tickets for the Jewel – A Private Concert to Benefit Promises2Kids are online and will be available at the door. They start at $250 per person for general admission, $475 for the VIP reception with Jewel, and $2,500 for a 10-person table or six VIP tickets.
